ARTICLE I - DEFINITION

Section 1.01. The Sea Ranch Restrictions. The term “The Sea Ranch Restrictions” shall mean limitations, restrictions, covenants and conditions set forth in that certain declaration entitled “The Sea Ranch Restrictions” dated April 29, 1965, and recorded in the Office of Recorder of the County of Sonoma on the 10th day of May, 1965, in Book 2127 of Official Records at page 238 and following, as said declaration may from time to time be amended pursuant to Section 9.01 thereof; provided, however, that with respect to any property within The Sea Ranch which is annexed pursuant to Section 2.02 of said declaration, the term “The Sea Ranch Restrictions” shall also mean said declaration as it may from time to time be supplemented or modified by the provisions of a declaration, if any, filed with respect to such property pursuant to paragraph (a) of Section 2.02 of said declaration.

Section 1.02. Lot; The Sea Ranch. The term “Lot” and “The Sea Ranch,” which are defined in Article First of The Sea Ranch Restrictions, are used in these Bylaws as therein defined.

Section 1.03. Owner. The term “Owner” shall mean the person or persons holding the beneficial ownership of a Lot in The Sea Ranch.

Section 1.04. Terms in Articles of Incorporation. The definitions of the foregoing terms in this Article, to the extent such definitions differ from those set forth in Article Third of the Articles of Incorporation of this Association, are intended further to define and interpret such terms.

Section 1.05. Principal Executive Office. The Association shall have its principal executive office at The Sea Ranch, Sonoma County, California.

ARTICLE II - MEMBERS

Section 2.01. Qualification: Proof of Status; Certificates.

- (a) Each Owner, by virtue of being an Owner and until no longer an Owner, shall be a member of the Association. No person other than an Owner may be a member of the Association.
- (b) No person shall exercise the rights of membership until satisfactory proof has been furnished to the Secretary that he is an Owner. Such proof may consist of a copy of a duly executed and acknowledged grant deed or title insurance policy showing said person to be the Owner of a Lot within The Sea Ranch. Said deed or policy shall be deemed conclusive in the absence of a conflicting claim based upon a later deed or policy.
- (c) Membership in the Association shall automatically terminate upon the transfer of an Owner's beneficial ownership of a Lot in The Sea Ranch. A membership may be transferred only in conjunction with the transfer of title of the Lot to which it attaches, and then only to the transferee of title. Upon said transfer and termination, the transferee shall automatically become a member of the Association.

Section 2.02. Certificates.

- (a) The Board may provide for the issuance of certificates evidencing membership in the Association which shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. All certificates evidencing membership shall be consecutively numbered and shall state the following:
  - (i) That the Association is a California Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation which may not make distributions to its members except upon dissolution; and
  - (ii) If there are any restrictions upon the transferability of memberships, that a copy of such restrictions is on file with the Secretary of the Association, open to inspection by any member on the same basis as the records of the Association.
- (b) The name and address of each member and the date of issuance of the certificate shall be entered on the records of the Association maintained by the Secretary. If any certificate shall become lost, mutilated or destroyed a new certificate may be issued therefore upon such terms and conditions as the Board may direct.

Section 2.03. Voting Rights; Proxies.

- (a) At any meeting of the members, each member shall be entitled to cast one vote for each Lot owned by such member.
- (b) Any member may attend and vote at meetings in person, or by proxy holder duly appointed by a written proxy signed by the member and filed with the Secretary. Any proxy shall be for a term of not to exceed eleven (11) months unless otherwise expressly provided therein and may be revoked at any time by written notice to the Secretary, the filing of a subsequent proxy, or the attendance and voting in person by the person who executed the proxy. It shall be deemed revoked when the Secretary shall receive actual notice of the death or judicially declared incompetence of such member, or upon termination of such member's status as an Owner. A proxy may be irrevocable if it so states and the proxy is held by a person who has purchased or who has agreed to purchase the membership. However, such an irrevocable proxy becomes revocable when the agreement to purchase is terminated. Where two or more persons constitute a member, any proxy with respect to the vote of such member may be signed by one person, provided that no other Co-Owner contests the proxy. If any Co-Owner contests the proxy, any proxy with respect to the vote of such member shall be signed by all Co-Owners. All such persons may attend meetings, but no vote of such members shall be cast without the unanimous consent of all such persons present at a given meeting.

Section 2.04. Meetings of Members.

- (a) There shall be an annual meeting of the members on the Saturday of Memorial Day Holiday weekend at 1:30 p.m. at The Sea Ranch, or at such other reasonable place or time (not more than thirty (30) days before or after such date) as may be designated by notice of the Board delivered to the members not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the date fixed for said meeting.
- (b) Special meetings of the members may be called at any time for the purpose of considering matters which, by the terms of Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or The Sea Ranch Restrictions, require the approval of all or some of the members, or for any other reasonable purpose. Said meetings shall be called by the Chair of the Board, the Board, or five percent (5%) or more of the members.
- (c) If a special meeting is called by members other than the Chair of the Board, the request shall be submitted by such members in writing, specifying the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted, and shall be delivered personally or sent by registered mail or by telegraphic or other facsimile transmission to the Chair of the Board, the Vice Chair of the Board, or the Secretary of the Association. The officer receiving the request shall cause notice to be promptly given to the members entitled to vote, in accordance with the provisions of Section

2.05 of this Article II, that a meeting will be held, the time and date for such meeting, which date shall not be less than thirty-five (35) nor more than ninety (90) days following the receipt of the request, and the place of such meeting. If the notice is not given within the twenty (20) days after receipt of the request, the persons requesting the meeting may give the notice. Nothing contained in this subsection shall be construed as limiting, fixing, or affecting the time when a meeting of members may be held when the meeting is called by action of the Board of Directors.

Section 2.05 Notices of Meetings.

- (a) All notices of meetings of members shall be sent or otherwise given in accordance with this section not less than ten (10) nor more than ninety (90) days before the date of the meeting, provided, however, that if the notice is given by mail, and is not mailed by first-class, registered or certified mail, that the notice shall be given not less than twenty (20) days before the meeting.
- (b) The notice shall specify the place, date, and hour of the meeting and
  - (i) in the case of a special meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted, and no other business may in that case be transacted; or
  - (ii) in the case of the annual or regular meeting, those matters which the Board of Directors, at the time of the giving the notice, intends to present for action by the members. The notice of any meeting at which Directors are to be elected shall include the names of all those who are nominees at the time the notice is given to members.
- (c) If action is proposed to be taken at any meeting for approval of any of the following proposals, the notice shall also state the general nature of the proposals. Member action on such items is invalid unless the notice or written waiver of notice states the general nature of the proposal(s):
  - (i) Removing a Director without cause;
  - (ii) Filling vacancies on the Board of Directors by the members;
  - (iii) Amending the Articles of Incorporation;
  - (iv) Approving a contract or transaction in which a Director has a material financial interest;
- (d) Notice of any meeting of members shall be given either personally or by first-class mail, telegraphic or other written communication, charges prepaid, addressed to each member either at the address of that member appearing on the books of the Association or the address given by the member to the Association for the purpose of notice. If no address appears on the Association's books and no other has been given, notice shall be deemed to have been given if either:

- (i) notice is sent to that member by first-class mail, or telegraphic or other written communication to any Lot within The Sea Ranch owned by such member; or
  - (ii) notice is published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the Association's principal executive office is located. Notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time when delivered personally, or sent by telegram or other means of written communication, or forty-eight (48) hours after deposited in the mail.
- (e) An affidavit of the mailing or other means of giving any notice of any members' meeting may be executed by the Secretary, Assistant Secretary, or any other party of the Association giving the notice, and if so executed, shall be filed and maintained in the minutes book of the Association. Such an affidavit shall be prima facie evidence of giving the notice as required by these Bylaws.
- (f) The Association is the sole owner and shareholder of The Sea Ranch Water Company. As such, the Association shall require that shareholders meetings and Board of Directors meetings of The Sea Ranch Water Company be open to members of the Association to the same extent that meetings of the Association are open to its members pursuant to California Civil Code Section 11363.05 as amended by Stats. 19996 c.1101 (AB1317).

Section 2.06. Quorum. The presence at any meeting, in person or by proxy, of members having one-third (1/3) of the total votes shall constitute a quorum. Unless otherwise expressly provided herein, any action may be taken at any meeting of the members upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the total votes present and voting at such meeting in person or by proxy, subject to any limitations stated in the proxy. For the purposes of this section the phrase "total votes present and voting" shall not include abstaining votes.

Section 2.07. Record Date.

- (a) For the purpose of determining which members are entitled to receive notice of any meeting, to vote, or to give consent to corporate action without a meeting, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a "record date," which shall not be more than sixty (60) nor fewer than ten (10) days before the date of any such meeting. Only members of record on the date so fixed are entitled to notice, to vote, or to give consents, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any membership on the books of the Association after the record date, except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, by agreement, or in the California Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law.

- (b) Unless otherwise fixed by the Board of Directors, the record date for determining those members entitled to receive notice of, or to vote at, a meeting of members, shall be the next business day preceding the day on which notice is given, or, if notice is waived, the next business day preceding the day on which the meeting is held.
- (c) A person holding membership as of the close of business on the record date shall be deemed the member of record.

ARTICLE III - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 3.01. Corporate Powers.

- (a) The corporate powers of the Association shall be vested in, exercised by, and under the authority of, and the affairs of the Association shall be controlled by a Board of Directors consisting of seven (7) persons.
- (b) The Board shall have the exclusive right and responsibility to perform the duties and obligations and to exercise the powers and authority of the Association as set forth in The Sea Ranch Restrictions.
- (c) The Board shall only exercise the powers and authority of the Association as set forth in The Sea Ranch Restrictions, and none other.
- (d) The Board shall set overall policy for The Sea Ranch Association and shall delegate the management of the Association to the Community Manager.

Section 3.02. Qualification, Election, and Tenure of Directors.

- (a) Only members of the Association in good standing shall be eligible to serve on the Board. For purposes of eligibility for election to the Board of Directors, "member" shall mean that person named on the registered and recorded deed to a parcel on The Sea Ranch, except that:
  - (i) When there are several names on the recorded deed, the eligible member is that single person designated by the several Owners to have the right to cast the parcel's vote in an election of the Association, or
  - (ii) When the parcel is owned by a corporation, the eligible member is that person authorized by the corporation to cast its vote in an election of the Association.
- (b) Members having at least one-third of the total votes in the Association shall, in person or by proxy, elect candidates to the Board and such election shall be effective as of the end of the annual meeting. Candidates will be elected to serve for three (3) year terms. Each member may accumulate his votes and give one or more candidates for Director a number of votes equal to the number of lots owned by the member multiply by the number of Directors to be elected. The candidates receiving the highest number of votes up to the number of authorized Directors to be elected shall be deemed elected. In the event the members present in person or by proxy represent less than one-third of the total voting power in the Association, the election shall be re-held within 60 days and, in the interim, the remaining Board Members may by majority vote temporarily, pending completion of the follow-up election, fill vacancies on the Board caused by such lack of quorum.

- (c) The Board of Directors shall provide a reasonable opportunity for a nominee to communicate to the members regarding the nominee's qualifications and the reasons for the nominee's candidacy, a reasonable opportunity for all nominees to solicit votes, and a reasonable opportunity for all members to choose among the nominees.
- (d) Except for the election of 1993, Directors shall serve for a term of three (3) Board years, or until their respective successors are elected; or until their death, resignation, removal; or upon cessation of their Association membership, whichever is the earliest. Any Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Chair or Secretary of the Board.
- (e) No member may be elected as a Director for more than two (2) consecutive complete terms, except that any member may be elected after an absence from the Board for a period of three (3) Board years. This limitation shall take effect with the elections of 1993 and not be retroactive to prior terms served.
- (f) If, at the regular date of closing for submission of a member to election to the Board, there are not one-and-one-half (1½) times more qualified candidates than the number of openings on the Board, the filing date shall be extended fourteen (14) days, after which period the election shall go forward. Timely notification of the extension shall be made to all members of the Association by first-class mail to their address of record.

Section 3.03. Removal of Directors; Vacancies.

- (a) The entire Board of Directors, or any individual Director, may be removed from office at any time by the vote of a majority of the members of the Association in accordance with the provisions of Corporations Code Section 7222. If the Articles or Bylaws of the Association authorize members to cumulate their votes, no Director may be removed (unless the entire Board is removed) when the votes cast against removal would be sufficient to elect such Director if voted cumulatively at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast and the entire numbers of Directors authorized at the time of the Director's most recent election were then being elected. If any or all Directors are so removed, new Directors may be elected at the same meeting and they shall hold office for the remainder of the terms of the removed Directors. If new Directors are not elected at such meeting, the vacancy or vacancies created by the removal shall be filled as provided in this section.

- (b) Any elected Director who shall have been absent from two (2) consecutive regular scheduled meetings or four (4) non-consecutive regular scheduled meetings of the Board during a single administrative year shall forfeit his or her seat on the Board. The Chair of the Board, or in his absence the person who is presiding at the meeting, shall declare the seat vacated and the vacancy shall be filled as provided by these Bylaws; however, the Chair of the Board shall consider each absence of any elected Director as a separate circumstance and may expressly waive such absence for good cause shown.
- (c) Vacancies in the Board of Director shall exist:
  - (i) on the death, resignation, or removal of any Director;
  - (ii) whenever the number of Directors authorized is increased;
  - (iii) on failure of the members in any election to elect the full number of Directors authorized; or
  - (iv) termination of membership in the Association.
- (d) The Board of Directors may declare vacant the office of a Director:
  - (i) if he is declared of unsound mind by order of court, or finally convicted of a felony;
  - (ii) if within sixty (60) days after notice of his election he does not accept the office either in writing or by attending a meeting of the Board of Directors; or
  - (iii) if his removal is approved by a majority of members in accordance with Corporations Code Section 7222.
- (e) Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, vacancies on the Board shall be filled by a majority of the remaining Directors, though less than a quorum, as hereinafter defined, or by the sole remaining Director. If the Board of Directors accepts the resignation of a Director tendered to take effect at a future time, either the Board or the members may elect a successor to take office when the resignation becomes effective.
- (f) A majority of the members of the Association may elect a Director at any time to fill any vacancy not filled by the Directors as provided in this section. Should the office of all Directors become vacant and there is consequently no Director left to fill vacancies, the vacancies shall be filled by a vote of the majority of the members of the Association at the Annual Meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose at which a quorum is present.

- (g) A person elected Director to fill a vacancy as in this section provided, shall hold office for the unexpired terms of his predecessor or until his death, resignation, or disability, or until his removal, as in these Bylaws provided.
- (h) A reduction of the authorized number of Directors does not remove any Director prior to the expiration of his terms in office.

Section 3.04. Meetings of the Board.

- (a) Meetings of the Board shall be held at such place or places within the State of California which may be designed from time to time by resolution by the Board of Directors. In the absence of such designation, meetings shall be held at the principal office of the Association, provided that any such meeting held elsewhere shall be valid if held on the written consent of all Directors given either before or after the meeting and filed with the Secretary of the Association.
- (b) Regular meetings shall be held at such time and place as may be designated by the Board of Directors.
- (c) Special or emergency meetings of the Board may be called by the Chair of the Board, or by any two Directors, and such meetings shall be held at the place designed by the person or persons calling the meeting, and in the absence of such designation at the principal office of the Association.
- (d) Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of such Directors.

Section 3.05. Notices of Meeting; Quorum.

- (a) Members shall be given notice of the time and place of a meeting, except for an emergency meeting, at least four days prior to the meeting. Notice shall be given by posting the notice in a prominent place or places within the common area and by mail to any owner who had requested notification of board meetings by mail, at the address requested by the owner.
- (b) A majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Members of the Board may participate in a meeting through use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as all members participating in such meeting can hear one another. Such participation in a meeting constitutes presence at such meeting.

- (c) Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board of Directors, unless the law, the Articles of Incorporation of this Association, or these Bylaws require a greater number. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting unless the law, Articles of Incorporation, or Bylaws require a greater number.
- (d) The transactions of any meeting of the Board, however called and noticed or wherever held, are as valid as though the meeting had been duly held after proper call notice, provided a quorum is present and provided that either before or after the meeting each of the Directors not present sign a waiver of notice or a consent to holding the meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.
- (e) The Association is the sole owner and shareholder of The Sea Ranch Water Company. As such, the Association shall require that shareholders meetings and Board of Directors meetings of The Sea Ranch Water Company be open to members of the Association to the same extent that meetings of the Association are open to its members pursuant to California Civil Code Section 11363.05 as amended

Section 3.06. Conduct of Meetings.

- (a) All meetings of Directors shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order, as such rules may be revised from time to time, insofar as such rules are not inconsistent or in conflict with these Bylaws, with the Articles of Incorporation of this Association, The Sea Ranch Rules or with law.
- (b) Meetings of Directors shall be presided over by the Chair of the Board, or in his absence by the Vice Chair of the Board, or, in the absence of both, by a chair chosen by a majority of the Directors present. In case the Secretary is absent from any such meeting, the Assistant Secretary shall act as Secretary and in his absence, the presiding officer may appoint any person to act as Secretary for the meeting.

ARTICLE IV - OFFICERS

Section 4.01. Officers. The officers of the Association shall be a Chair of the Board, a Vice Chair of the Board, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The Association may also have, at the discretion of the Board, one or more Assistant Secretaries, one or more Assistant Treasurers, and such other officers as may be appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.03. One person may hold two or more offices, except that the offices of Chair of the Board and Secretary shall not be held by the same person.

Section 4.02. Election. The officers of the Association, except such officers as may be appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.03 or 4.05, shall be chosen annually by the Board, and each officer shall hold his office until resignation, removal or other disqualification to serve, or a successor shall be elected and qualified.

Section 4.03. Subordinate Officers. The Board may appoint, and may empower the Chair of the Board to appoint, such other officers as the affairs of the Association may require, each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority and perform such duties as are provided in the Bylaws or as the Board may from time to time determine.

Section 4.04. Removal and Resignation. Any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, by the Board or by any officer upon whom such power of removal may be conferred by the Board; provided, however, that no such officer shall remove any officer chosen by the Board.

Any elected officer who shall have been absent from two (2) consecutive regular scheduled monthly meetings or four (4) non-consecutive regular scheduled monthly meetings of the Board during a single administrative year shall forfeit his or her seat on the Board. The Chair of the Board, or in his absence, the person who is presiding at the meeting, shall declare the seat vacated and the vacancy shall be filled as provided by these Bylaws; however, the Board shall consider each absence of any elected officer as a separate circumstance and may expressly waive such absence by affirmative vote of a majority of its members. This provision shall apply to officers elected on or after May 29, 1982.

Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board or to the Chair of the Board or Secretary. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein; and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 4.07. Vice Chair of the Board. The Vice Chair of the Board shall be elected by the Board from among the Directors. In the absence or disability of the Chair of the Board, the Vice Chair of the Board shall perform all the duties of the Chair of the Board, and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the Chair of the Board. The Vice Chair shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board and the Bylaws.

Section 4.08. Secretary. The Secretary shall keep or cause to be kept, at the principal office or such other place as the Board may order, a book of minutes of all meetings of Directors and members, with the time and place of holding, whether regular or special, and if special, how authorized, the notice thereof given, the names of those present at Directors' meetings, the number of members present in person or by proxy at members' meetings, and the proceedings thereof. The Secretary shall keep, or cause to be kept, appropriate current records showing the members of the Association together with their addresses. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the members and of the Board required by the Bylaws or by law to be given, and he shall keep the seal of the Association in safe custody, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Bylaws.

Section 4.09. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall monitor financial affairs of the Association and shall report on the financial condition of the Association to the Board and the Membership of the Association, and perform other duties as may be prescribed by the Board.

ARTICLE V - CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Section 5.01. Chief Executive Officer. The Board may employ a Community Manager, who shall serve at the pleasure of the Board, subject to any applicable contract of employment and duly adopted job description. The Community Manager shall be the general manager and chief executive officer of the Association and shall, subject to the control of the Board, have general supervision, direction and control of the affairs of the Association and shall have the general powers and duties of management usually vested in a general manager and chief executive officer, together with such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by the Board. To the extent not inconsistent with the laws of the State of California, and upon such conditions as are otherwise deemed advisable by the Association, the Association may delegate to the Community Manager any of its powers under The Sea Ranch Restrictions.

The Community Manager shall cause to be kept and maintained, adequate and correct accounts of the properties and business transactions of the Association, including accounts of its assets, liabilities, receipts, and disbursements. The books of account shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by any Director. The Community Manager shall insure that all monies and other valuables are deposited in the name and to the credit of the Association with such depositories as may be designated by the Board. The Community Manager shall insure that the funds of the Association are disbursed, as may be ordered by the Board, shall cause to be reported to the Chair of the Board of Directors, whenever they request it, an account of all transactions and of the financial condition of the Association, and shall have such other powers and perform such other fiscal duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Bylaws.

Section 6.02. Books, Records and Minutes. The accounting books, records and minutes of proceedings of the members and the Board of Directors and any committee(s) of the Board of Directors shall be kept at such place or places designated by the Board of Directors, or, in the absence of such designation, at the principal executive office of the Association. The minutes shall be kept in written or typed form, and the accounting books and records shall be kept in a manner consistent with generally accepted accounting principals and be kept either in written or typed form, or in any other form capable of being converted into written, typed, or printed form. The minutes and accounting books and records shall be open to inspection on the written demand of any member, at any reasonable time during usual business hours, for a purpose reasonably related to the members interest as a member. The inspection may be made in person or by an agent or attorney, and shall include the right to copy and make extracts. These rights of inspection shall extend to the records of each subsidiary corporation of the Association.

Section 6.03. Annual Report. Each year, within one hundred twenty (120) days of the close of its fiscal year, a report containing the following information shall be sent to each member:

- (a) "Association official" means all of the following:
  - A member of the Board of Directors
  - A member of the Finance Committee
  - A member of the Design Committee
  - A Member of the Planning Committee
  - A member of the Utilities Committee
  - Chief Executive Officer/Community Manager

Attempts to influence include, but are not limited to, appearances or contacts by the official on behalf of a business entity, client, customer, or any other source of income to the official. However, an official is not attempting to use his or her official position to influence a decision if the official appears in the same manner as any other member of the Association solely to represent himself or herself on a matter which is related to his or her personal interest in real property which is used, or to be used, by the official as his or her personal residence, in which case the official shall be precluded from voting on the decision.

- (c) “Financial Interest” means that it is reasonably foreseeable that the decision will have a financial effect, distinguishable from its effect on the members of the Association generally, on any of the following:

The Association may indemnify any Association employees, Water Company employees or other agents to the extent the Board may determine, consistent with California law.

The Association may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Director, Officer, employee or other agent of the Association (including the Community Manager) against any liability asserted against or incurred by such person in such capacity or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify his or her

The Association may enter into indemnification agreements with Directors, Officers, employees and other agents of the Association. Any such indemnification agreement shall set forth, but not to the exclusion of the provisions of this Section 7.06, the particular obligations of the Association to indemnify the Director, Officer, employee or other agent against any liability asserted against or incurred by him or her as such Director, Officer, employee or other agent of the Association.
